

LOUISIANA STATE MUSEUM

Health and Safety Measures for Visitors

The Louisiana State Museum is committed to the highest standards of cleanliness and safety during the COVID-19 pandemic. The Louisiana State Museum asks visitors to please remember:

- Face coverings are required at all times for staff and visitors, per state and local mandates
- Individuals and groups are required to maintain six feet of distance at all times, per state and local mandates

The Louisiana State Museum is taking the following measures:

- Regularly sanitizing high-touch surfaces, such as door handles, restrooms, and elevator buttons
- Reconfigured entrances and ticket lines to prevent crowding
- Placed plexiglass barriers between staff and visitors at all ticket counters
- Placed hand sanitizer stations throughout all museums
- Eliminated touch-based interactives in exhibits
- Posted signage to encourage six feet of physical distance between groups and individuals
- Maintaining attendance at 50% capacity or less
- Guided tours are not being offered at this time
- Offering online ticket sales to reduce contact between staff and visitors at LouisianaStateMuseum.org/tickets
- Limiting group size to a maximum of 15 people per reservation (make a group reservation at bit.ly/GroupResLSM)

Visit safely and enjoy Louisiana's rich history and culture!
